Statement From GRASP CEO Todd Martin Regarding Racial Justice

June 11, 2020

We at GRASP have been saddened by the recent reports of racial injustice and discrimination. At the same time, we have been inspired by the peaceful protesters marching every day seeking to change hearts, minds and institutions. For too long, people of color have been marginalized, been denied rights, and often been stripped of human dignity.

GRASP believes equality and justice are paramount for all Americans. As our nation works to recognize the injustices that have plagued America since its founding, GRASP redoubles its commitment to recognizing the unique abilities of our students, supporting their development in a safe space, and ensuring career and college access for all.

Since its founding in 1983, GRASP has worked to ensure that every student has an equal opportunity for continuing education after high school, regardless of financial or social circumstances. Quality education for all is imperative, and GRASP stands ready to continue to help all students achieve their educational goals toward brighter futures.
